

LLC Sokol

LLC "Sokol" has been operating since 2014, the company specializes in producing environmentally friendly and high-quality honey. "Sokol" proudly announces its long-term cooperation with local beekeepers who have proven themselves as reliable and talented honey producers. Our partners are located close to our base, allowing us to establish mutually beneficial relationships over many years. By purchasing honey in large quantities, we not only support local beekeeping but also provide our customers with quality products at affordable prices. Our company adheres to strict quality standards, so each batch of honey undergoes thorough testing. We respect the work of beekeepers and value their craftsmanship, which is confirmed by the stable and high demand for their products. Thanks to well-planned logistics and direct purchases from beekeepers, we are able to offer competitive prices while maintaining high product quality. Moreover, this cooperation model allows us to be confident in the origin and naturalness of the honey. "Sokol" is proud to support the local economy and promote beekeeping products in our region.
